Welcome to Harvestfest! And – Welcome Back!

I am thrilled to welcome you to Harvestfest 2021. This is the first, formal concert in the Lasker Performing Arts Center since the Jubilee Singers performed here in February of 2020. It really is great to be back home.

The Newton North ensembles have been working hard these past 7-8 weeks in preparation for tonight. They've come together in new groupings, within a completely new school schedule and brought with them an energy and joy for music-making which is such a welcome sound after our remote-learning year. I believe that this is a great beginning for a whole new chapter of opportunity with North Music. That said, I cannot underestimate the incredible and tireless work of the North Music Faculty over the last year and a half. Their commitment to music, teaching and fostering community for their students has been nothing short of amazing – a very big cheers for Adam Grossman, Rich Labeledz and Sheldon Reid!

And so, as always, it is my sincere hope that you enjoy tonight's concert. Listening to music is a great joy. To make music is an even more remarkable experience. To share music with friends...well, that's just about the best.

Sincerely,

Todd R. Young
Chair, Fine & Performing Arts Department
